

BOOK SALE TIME IS HERE!!!

Our big book sale of the year is coming up the first weekend in August during the Hector A-Fair. Come find the book of your dreams in our new Book Shed (the white outbuilding with the blue roof) on Friday, August 2, and Saturday, August 3, from 9:00 am to 7:00 pm. We have hard cover books ($3), soft cover books ($1), DVDs ($1), and puzzles ($1). Come early and often – more books go on the shelves daily!

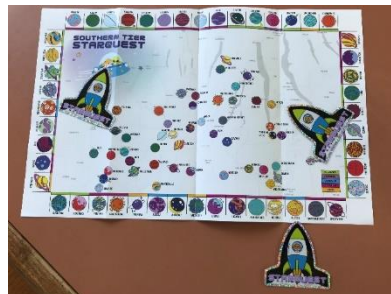

A Quilt Talk by Eugenia Barnes

American Quilt Society appraiser and quilt historian, Eugenia Barnes, will give a talk on quilts at the Hector Library on Wednesday, August 14, at 11:00 am. This is a great chance to bring your family heirlooms and learn about them, as she will be glad to look at any quilts brought and tell you about their age, materials, and general value. There is no charge unless you would like a formal certified appraisal. For more information call Bobbi Beckhorn – (607) 546-6153.

Too Hot for You?

As the weather gets warmer, don't forget that we offer an air-conditioned space for you to sit, relax, and cool off any time we are open. Come in and use our wi-fi or read in comfort. Libraries are cool!

Join STARQuest this Summer

All are welcome to participate – including visitors to the region! No library card required, although we encourage you to inquire about signing up for one.

The Tuesday group is reading The Night Circus by Erin Morgenstern, and will discuss it on Tuesday, August 6 at 6:00 pm. The Thursday group will meet on August 8 at 2:00 pm.
